

Tecumseh United FC Anti Doping Policy

Tecumseh United FC is fully committed to upholding the anti-doping initiatives set forth by the Canadian Centre For Ethical Sport (CCES), the Canadian Anti-Doping Program (CADP), the Canadian Soccer Association (CSA), and FIFA. We believe in fostering a culture of fair play, integrity, and ethical behavior within our club.

Our Approach:

1. Education and Awareness: Coaches and administrators at Tecumseh United FC are encouraged to incorporate discussions on doping and ethical sport into team conversations. We promote education and awareness among our coaches, players, and parents to ensure everyone understands the importance of anti-doping measures.
2. Resource Sharing: We provide valuable resources from the CCES, CADP, CSA, and FIFA to our members, which include information on the Canadian Anti-Doping Program, testing procedures, medical exemptions, and the consequences of doping violations.

Key Resources:

-Canadian Centre For Ethical Sport (CCES): The CCES is dedicated to creating an ethical and fair sporting environment for all Canadians. The CADP, managed by the CCES, sets the standard for anti-doping efforts in Canada. Link: [cces.ca](<http://cces.ca/>)

Canadian Anti-Doping Program (CADP): As the custodian of the CADP, the CCES ensures that anti-doping efforts in Canada are compliant with international standards. The CADP covers in- and out-of-competition testing, education, medical exemptions, and consequences of doping violations. Implementation:

This policy will be communicated to all members of Tecumseh United FC and integrated into our club's practices and activities. We are committed to promoting a clean and fair sporting environment where all athletes can compete with integrity and respect.

Conclusion:

At Tecumseh United FC, we stand firmly against doping in sports and are dedicated to upholding the highest standards of integrity and fair play. By adhering to these principles, we ensure that our club remains a beacon of sportsmanship and ethical behavior in the soccer community.
